From the Grand Knight

Greetings Brother Knights,

Spring is here and soon the seasonals will be heading home. We wish all members of OLOL and all others a safe journeys back home!

Welcome to our new member Larry Singer, he took his admission degree last Tuesday! We're happy to have him on our team.

We will be entering Holy Week soon, which brings renewal in the risen Lord. With Lent being a time of pondering and oftentimes dryness, we can look forward to the glorious miracle of our risen Savior.

The Italian Dinner was extremely successful! We grossed $3,900 which was not in the budget. Our thanks to Felix De Los Santos for his organizational efforts in making the dinner a success.

We raised $14,300 on the Tootsie Roll Drive which will go to the disabled community. Thank you for your support of this worthwhile effort.

We have had two successful breakfasts in a row with the one this past Sunday grossing $1,600!

Some important dates to place on your calendar for April:

-April 4, Business Meeting.

-April 20, Easter Egg Hunt

-April 25, Planning Meeting

-April 27, Clergy Appreciation Dinner

A committee for nominating potential officers should be organized immediately. If you would like to serve on this committee, or run for an office, please contact me (330) 289-2770 billrathbun1@gmail.com.

Volunteer hours are down and we need both internal and external volunteer hours. All too often, it's the same folks doing everything. Please look your schedules and determine where you may have a few extra hours to volunteer.

As always, thank you to the volunteers willingly give so much of their time every month to make all our activities successful!

Here are our events coming soon

-WE WILL HAVE OUR ANNUAL GOLF TOURNAMENT

The Knight of the month was Pete Ennis. He worked very hard in preparing the food for our successful Bingo Night. Everyone should stop and have a great meal at Beef O Brady's, Pete's restaurant at 20301 Grande Oak Blvd #108 Estero FL.

The Family of the month was Joe Klempka and his son Peter. They teamed together to make the best Italian beef sandwiches for our Italian night dinner. Peter cooked the beef roast to perfection, using his recipe from Chicago to make the gravy, and Joe picked up the rolls from Rosati's Pizza. Thank you, I can't wait until next year.

Thank you, also, Jim Scialabba for all the hard work preparing the the delicious lasagne and the rest of the Italian Dinner, and all those who helped .

Thank you,

Bob Du Mont
